

Fort Wayne Turners

Board Meeting

February 8, 2011

In attendance: Ed Keller, Vanessa Miller, Joe Wagner, Sabrina Teague, Jan Hayward, Margaret Stephens, Jeff Massucci, Tim Longardner, Kim Burns, and Rich Burns.

2nd Vice – Jan Hayward – Passed out a profit and loss statement for the Elvis Concert. The concert made a profit of over $300.00. She would like to have Elvis back for a Sunday afternoon concert on Dec. 11. The Board approved. She then handed out the March calendars.

Kitchen Trustee – Joe Wagner – Needs three more fish fry crews to finish out the basketball season. He would also like to have different crews cook during the National Bowling Tournament.

1st Vice – Sabrina Teague – Stated that the January Extravaganza made over $700.00. The kitchen sold over $140.00 in food sales.

Maintenance Trustee – Rich Burns – Has only received 1 quote on lawn maintenance and that was for mowing only. This was tabled until he either gets more quotes or more information.

Treasurer – Vanessa Miller – We have approximately $7000.00 in the general bank account to pay bills. Tim Longardner gave Vanessa $2500.00 from the gaming account to help pay the insurance. He also gave her $250.00 from the profit on the steak dinner.

He will be bringing in Rob and Heidi every Saturday night during the National Bowling Tournament for entertainment.

Tim is also planning a prime rib dinner. Profit from the steak dinner was over $400.00, so he hoping for the same or more from the prime rib dinner.

Tim and Roger Ruille also purchased a breatherizer testing machine that will hang in the bar. Cost to use it will be 25 cents. After their money is recouped, the profits will go to the club.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:00 pm so that the Germanfest Audit could use the Memorial Room.
